

Joshua Ellicott

Tenor

"...the outstanding Joshua Ellicott..."
The Times

Joshua Ellicott's sweet-toned, flexible yet powerful lyric tenor voice and versatile musicianship are apparent in the wide range of repertoire in which he excels, from song to opera to concert, and the list of conductors and ensembles with whom he works worldwide.

In the field of early music he has worked with Nikolaus Harnoncourt (Concentus Musicus Wien), Sir Roger Norrington (Zurich Chamber Orchestra), Harry Bicket (The English Concert), Harry Christophers (The Sixteen, Boston Handel and Haydn Society), Robert King (The King's Consort), Paul McCreech (The Gabrieli Consort, Wrocław Baroque Orchestra), Bernard Labadie (OAE), Emmanuel Haim (Le Concert d'Astree), amongst others.

Joshua has developed a particular affinity with the works of Bach, Handel and Monteverdi and within that a special love for the role of the Evangelist in Bach's Passions. He also enjoys interpreting later repertoire and he has been privileged to work with such luminaries as Sir Mark Elder, Daniel Harding and Esa Pekka Salonen in works as varied as Parsifal and Tristan und Isolde (Wagner) to The Seven Deadly Sins (Kurt Weill) and Wozzeck (Berg).

Song is another important feature of Joshua's artistry. One of the greatest successes of recent years has been a programme devised around the First World War letters of Josh's Great Uncle Jack in which through his dramatic readings of letters and interspersed song, audiences have been left deeply moved. A particularly special performance took place at the Cologne Early Music Festival where some of the letters were translated into German and read by Joshua.

Recent highlights include singing the Evangelist in Bach's St Matthew Passion at Deutsche Oper Berlin and also with the Residentie Orkest in the Netherlands, Damon Acis and Galatea at WDR Köln, Handel's Samson with the Internationale Bachakademie Stuttgart, Bach's Christmas Oratorio with Les Passions de l'Âme in Switzerland and also with Casa da Musica, Handel's Jephtha with the Internationale Bachakademie Stuttgart, the role of Tempo Il trionfo del tempo e del disinganno in a new production at the Royal Danish Opera, the UK premiere of George Walker's Lilacs with the BBC Philharmonic under John Storgårds, the Evangelist in a staged production of Bach's St John Passion at Teatro Arriaga in Spain, and the same role in his debut at Théâtre du Châtelet, a new work by Stuart MacRae at the Lammermuir Festival, Florestan in Beethoven's Leonore and also Caldara's Maddalena ai piedi di Cristo with Freiburger Barockorchester, Britten's Serenade with the Royal Northern Sinfonia, Handel's Judas Maccabaeus with Capella Cracoviensis, and Handel's Messiah with the New York Philharmonic.

This season, he returns to the Lammermuir Festival to perform his 'Jack' recital, performs a recital with Anna Tilbrook and also sings James MacMillan's All the Hills and Vales at The Cumnock Tryst festival, performs Elgar's The Dream of Gerontius in Nottingham, Handel's Messiah with BBC NOW, Handel's Susanna with the Dunedin Consort at St Martin in the Fields and Wiener Konzerthaus, Bach's St Matthew Passion (Evangelist) again with the Residentie Orkest under Richard Egarr, and a Handel programme with the Dresdner Philharmonie under Hans Christoph Rademann.

Joshua was born in Manchester and is a graduate of the University of York where he read music. From there he progressed to the Guildhall School of Music and Drama in London where he studied singing, aided by a full scholarship. A landmark in his developing career came in 2006 when he was the overall winner of the International Vocal Concours in 's Hertogenbosch, The Netherlands.
