

Stephen Langridge

Director

“...the theatrical experience is the thing: it is overwhelming”
Colin Anderson, The Opera Critic

Stephen Langridge has been appointed as Artistic Director at Glyndebourne, a post he will take up in spring 2019. He is currently Director for Opera and Drama at Gothenburg Opera, Sweden, where his productions of Le nozze di Figaro (2014/15), Hamlet (2015/16) and Elektra (2016/17) all brought him critical acclaim. Das Rheingold, which opened in November 2018, is the first part of a four-season production of Der Ring des Nibelungen he directs, finishing with Götterdämmerung in 2021.

Outside of Gothenburg, Stephen is much in-demand at major opera houses and festivals worldwide, with recent new productions including Theodora at Théâtre des Champs-Élysées and Carmen for Greek National Opera. In 2018/19, he directs Tristan und Isolde for Staatstheater Hannover.

In 2013/14, he directed a new production of Parsifal for the Royal Opera House Covent Garden. Furthermore, his work has included productions of La Damnation de Faust for Lyric Opera of Chicago; Otello at Salzburg Festival and Opera di Roma; The Minotaur for Royal Opera House Covent Garden; L'Orfeo at Tokyo Opera City; Lohengrin at the Stockholm Royal Opera; Madama Butterfly for Den Norske Opera Oslo; Salome in Malmö; Don Carlo at the Teatro Nacional de Sao Carlos, Lisbon; Rigoletto at Volksoper Wien; Barbe

Bleue at the Bregenz Festival; Giulio Cesare for Opéra de Bordeaux; La Bohème for Angers-Nantes Opéra; Misper, Zoe, and Tangier Tattoo for Glyndebourne; Orphée et Eurydice and The Possessed for Greek National Opera; The Io Passion for Aldeburgh and Bregenz festivals and The Mask of Orpheus at the South Bank Centre, London. He works regularly at Grange Park Opera, where his productions have included Le Nozze di Figaro, Blue Beard, Maria Stuarda and I Puritani, and at Nationale Reisopera in the Netherlands for whom he has directed Wake, Hippolyte et Aricie, La Bohème, Arianna in Creta and The Turn of the Screw.

The Exeter University drama graduate is also known for his large-scale theatre work in unusual settings. Such projects have included West Side Story and Shakespeare's Julius Caesar in UK Prisons, and Ngoma, a multi-racial music and theatre project in South African townships. For Share Music Sweden he works with integrated groups of disabled and non-disabled young people and he regularly leads training, development, and education projects for opera companies and orchestras across Europe.

Valid for use until 15 September 2019
For updated versions please contact info@rayfieldallied.com