

Alexander Romanovsky

Piano

“the latest pianist to be hailed as the true heir to the great Russian tradition.”

The Guardian

Described by Carlo Maria Giulini as “extraordinarily gifted,” pianist Alexander Romanovsky is a riveting, distinct and subtle performer with an utterly engaging voice.

Born in Ukraine in 1984, Alexander studied with his mentor Leonid Margarius at the Imola Piano Academy for fifteen years before continuing his studies at the Royal College of Music (London) with Dmitry Alexeev. At the age of seventeen, he won First Prize at the prestigious Busoni Competition in Italy.

Praised by The New York Times as “special, not just an extraordinary technician with a flair for colour and fantasy, but also a sensitive musician and lucid interpreter,” Alexander graces many of the world’s most prestigious stages in recital. Recent highlights include the complete Chopin Études in the Main hall of Amsterdam’s Concertgebouw; the Tchaikovsky Concert Hall in Moscow and the Great Hall of the Moscow Conservatoire; Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia and Teatro Olimpico in Rome; Tokyo’s Asahi and Kioi halls; Chile’s Teatro Municipal; and Sala Verdi at Milan’s Conservatorio; as well as a performance with the Swedish Radio Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Valery Gergiev.

Romanovsky regularly performs with major orchestras throughout Europe, Asia and The Americas including the UK’s Royal Philharmonic, English Chamber, Hallé and Bournemouth Symphony orchestras; Italy’s Orchestra dell’Accademia di Santa Cecilia in Rome and Milan’s Filarmonica della Scala; Russia’s Mariinsky and Russian National orchestras and St. Petersburg, Moscow and National Philharmonics; Japan’s Tokyo and NHK symphony orchestras; Chicago Symphony at the Ravinia Festival; Pacific and Santa Barbara Symphony orchestras; Costa Rica Symphony; and with the New York Philharmonic, under Alan Gilbert, at the Bravo! Vail Festival. He collaborates at a very high level with conductors such as Vladimir Spivakov, Valery Gergiev, Michael Pletnev, Vladimir Fedoseyev, Sir Antonio Pappano, Gianandrea Noseda, Yuri Simonov and James Conlon.

Highlights from past seasons include Brahms No. 1 at the Brescia and Bergamo International Piano Festival; Tchaikovsky No. 1 at the Teatro Colon in Buenos Aires; Prokofiev No. 3 with the Orquesta Sinfónica de Castilla y León under Andrew Gourlay; Rachmaninov No. 3 with the Filarmonica della Scala and Myung-Whun Chung, and ; Beethoven No. 5 under Vladimir Spivakov; and his debut at the Royal Albert Hall, London playing Beethoven No. 5 with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra. Recent recitals include Teatro Manzoni in Bologna; Istituzione Universitaria dei Concerti in Rome; Musica Insieme Bologna, Amici della Musica di Padova; Unione Musicale Torino; Freiburg International Piano Series; and Fondazione Accademia Musicale Chigiana.

Recent and future highlights include Alexander’s return to the Pacific Symphony Orchestra to perform the complete Beethoven Piano Concertos with Carl St Clair; Rachmaninov No. 3 with the Janáčkova filharmonie Ostrava and Petr Popelka; Mozart K. 467 with the Moscow State Symphony Orchestra and Yuri Simonov; Prokofiev No. 2 with the National Symphony Orchestra of Taiwan and Markus Stenz; and Beethoven Nos. 4 and 5 with the National Philharmonic of Russia and Vladimir Spivakov. Recitals include Casa da Musica in Porto, Fondation Louis Vuitton in Paris, and Teatro Galli in Rimini.

Alexander performs extensively throughout Italy, where he has lived since early childhood. In summer 2021, Alexander embarked on ‘Piano B’ an outdoor recital tour, bringing the music of Chopin and Rachmaninoff to over 40 piazzas across Italy.

In 2007, he was invited to give a concert at the Papal Residence in the presence of Pope Benedict XVI in celebration of the 110th Anniversary of Pope Paul VI’s birth.

Since 2007, he has released five critically acclaimed albums on Decca: Beethoven: Diabelli Variations, Brahms/Schumann, Rachmaninov: Etudes-Tableaux and Corelli Variations, Rachmaninov: Piano Sonatas, and more recently Childhood Memories. Alexander Romanovsky has held the post of Artistic Director of the Vladimir Krainev Moscow International Piano Competition since 2014..

Valid for use until 1 February 2022
For updated versions please contact info@rayfieldallied.com