

Ji-Min Park

Tenor

South Korean tenor Ji-Min Park studied at the Seoul National University, South Korea with Professor Philip Kang, and at the Vienna Conservatory, Austria with Professor Carolyn Hague. In 2007 he joined the Jette Parker Young Artists Programme at the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden and became a Principal Young Artist in the 2009-10 season.

Recent operatic highlights include Rodolfo La bohème (Opera på Skäret, New Zealand Opera, Cincinnati Opera, Opera Australia, Royal Opera House, Vancouver Opera and Opera North); Ernesto Don Pasquale (Opera Australia, Fort Worth Opera, Atlanta Opera and Opéra de Baugé); his role debut as Énée Les Troyens (Theater Kiel); Alfredo La traviata (Opera Australia, Scottish Opera, Opera Australia, Cincinnati Opera, Royal Opera House, Welsh National Opera and Opera North); Rinuccio Gianni Schicchi (Royal Opera House); and Edgardo Lucia di Lammermoor, Roméo Roméo et Juliette, Don José Carmen and Ferrando Così fan tutte (Opéra de Baugé).

His concert highlights include Verdi's Requiem (Estonian National Symphony Orchestra); Gennaro Lucrezia Borgia (Moscow State Philharmonic Society); a televised opera gala concert in Korea; and recitals at La Scala, La Fenice and the Royal Opera House.

Park won First Prize at the 5th Klaudia Taev International Estonian Music Competition, the Vienna Staatsoper

Special Prize at the International Belvedere Singing Competition in Vienna (2004), First Prize at the 7th International Bidu Sayao Competition in Belem, was a finalist in the International Francisco Viñas Competition in Barcelona (2006) and won third prize at the International Singing Competition in Toulouse (2008). He also represented Korea in the BBC Cardiff Singer of the World Competition 2009.

Valid for use in 2026/27 season
For updated versions please contact info@rayfieldallied.com