

Eric Ferring

Tenor

“ Eric Ferring’s fine, gleaming tenor made an impact.”
New York Classical Review

Eric Ferring’s recent engagements have included Tamino The Magic Flute, Arturo Lucia di Lammermoor, Pong Turandot and Royal Herald Don Carlo for the Metropolitan Opera, New York; Lurcanio Ariodante for the Opéra national de Paris and the Lyric Opera of Chicago; Lysander A Midsummer Night’s Dream for the Opéra de Rouen Normandie; Fenton Falstaff in Santa Fe, Rinuccio Gianni Schicchi at Opera Carolina and Tamino for the Opéra national du Rhin.

Elsewhere he has sung Don Ottavio Don Giovanni for the Opéra de Rouen Normandie and the Opéra de Lille, Grimoaldo Rodelinda in an international concert tour with The English Concert and Harry Bicket and Nemorino L’elisir d’amore for the Pittsburgh Opera.

Eric’s 2026/27 season features a host of anticipated orchestral appearances including Handel’s Messiah at the Salzburg Easter Festival with the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra/Emmanuelle Haïm and with the Minnesota Orchestra and Kansas City Symphony Orchestra under Dame Jane Glover and with Boston Baroque/Christoph Koncz and Mozart’s Requiem with the Seattle Symphony Orchestra/Xian Zhang and the New World Symphony Orchestra/Stephanie Childress. He will also perform the role of Haliarte, King of Lydia in concert performances of Handel’s Sosarme at the Halle Handel Festival with the Orquestra Barroca Casa da Música/Mahan Esfahani.

His debut solo album with pianist Madeline Slettedahl entitled No Choice but Love: Songs of the LGBTQ+ Community was released with Lexicon Classics. He followed this with We have tomorrow, which features chamber works by Barber, Beach, Brahms, and Fauré with Madeline Slettedahl and Quatuor Agate, is available on the Delos label. His performance in Chicago Lyric Opera’s production of Pagliacci was nominated and won a 2022 Emmy Award.

Valid for use until 1 September 2027
For updated versions please contact info@rayfieldallied.com