

Joshua Ellicott

Tenor

“...the outstanding Joshua Ellicott...”
The Times

Joshua Ellicott's sweet-toned, flexible yet powerful lyric tenor voice and versatile musicianship are apparent in the wide range of repertoire in which he excels, from song to opera to concert, and the list of conductors and ensembles with whom he works worldwide.

Described by the Wiener Zeitung as 'the magnificent tenor' for his performance with Nikolaus Harnoncourt in Purcell's Fairy Queen he has also been described by the New York Times as a "stand out in an excellent cast" for his portrayal of Andres in Wozzeck with the Philharmonia and Esa Pekka Salonen at the Lincoln Centre New York.

Joshua was born in Manchester and is a graduate of the University of York where he read music. From there he progressed to the Guildhall School of Music and Drama in London where he studied singing, aided by a full scholarship. A landmark in his developing career came in 2006 when he was the overall winner of the International Vocal Concours in 's Hertogenbosch, The Netherlands, as well as taking four of the remaining nine prizes for song, musical interpretation and opera.

In the field of early music he has worked with Nikolaus Harnoncourt (Concentus Musicus Wien), Sir Roger Norrington (Zurich Chamber Orchestra), Harry Bicket (The English Concert), Harry Christophers (The Sixteen, Boston Handel and Haydn Society), Robert King (The King's Consort), Paul McCreesh (The Gabrieli Consort, Wroclaw Baroque Orchestra), Bernard Labadie (OAE), Emmanuel Haim (Le Concert d'Astree)

Joshua has developed a particular affinity with the works of Bach, Handel and Monteverdi and within that a special love for the role of the Evangelist in Bach's Passions. He also enjoys interpreting later repertoire and he has been privileged to work with such luminaries as Sir Mark Elder, Daniel Harding and Esa Pekka Salonen in works as varied as Parsifal and Tristan und Isolde (Wagner) to The Seven Deadly Sins (Kurt Weill) and Wozzeck (Berg).

Orchestras include the BBC Symphony and Concert Orchestras, The Philharmonia, The Hallé, Orchestre Philharmonique de Radio

France, Swedish Radio Symphony, Trondheim Symphony, Stavanger Symphony, Brabants Orkest, RTE Symphony, Ulster Orchestra and Netherlands Radio Chamber Orchestra.

Song is another important feature of Joshua's artistry. One of the greatest successes of recent years has been a programme devised around the First World War letters of Josh's Great Uncle Jack in which through his dramatic readings of letters and interspersed song, audiences have been left deeply moved. A particularly special performance took place at the Cologne Early Music Festival where some of the letters were translated into German and read by Joshua.

Recent highlights include singing the Evangelist in Bach's St Matthew Passion at Deutsche Oper Berlin and also with the Residentie Orkest in the Netherlands, Handel's Jephta with the Internationale Bachakademie Stuttgart, the role of Tempo Il trionfo del tempo e del disinganno in a new production at the Royal Danish Opera, a role also sung with Les Passions de l'Ame in Switzerland, the UK premiere of George Walker's Lilacs with the BBC Philharmonic under John Storgårds, the Evangelist in a staged production of Bach's St John Passion at Teatro Arriaga in Spain, and the same role in his debut at Théâtre du Châtelet, a new work by Stuart MacRae at the Lammermuir Festival, returns to the Freiburger Barockorchester to sing the role of Florestan in Beethoven's Leonore and also Caldara's Maddalena ai piedi di Cristo, Britten's Serenade with the Royal Northern Sinfonia, Handel's Judas Maccabaeus for the second time with Capella Cracoviensis, Handel's Messiah with the New York Philharmonic, and Bach's Weihnachtoratorium with Casa da Musica.

This season, he sings Damon Acis and Galatea at WDR Köln, Handel's Samson with the Internationale Bachakademie Stuttgart, Bach's Christmas Oratorio with Les Passions de l'Âme in Switzerland, and the St Matthew Passion at the Royal Festival Hall and also with Residentie Orkest and Richard Egarr.
