

Venera Gimadieva

Soprano

“Even an earthquake could not have dislodged the extraordinarily powerful Venera Gimadieva from her richly toned sonorities [...] the heart of this solid, enjoyable show remains the thrilling Venera Gimadieva.”

The Times

Soprano Venera Gimadieva has quickly become one of the most sought-after lyric coloratura sopranos in Europe. Having studied at the St Petersburg Conservatoire and on the Young Artist Programme at the Bolshoi Theatre, Moscow, she now performs regularly at prestigious opera houses and venues across Europe and the USA.

In the 2022/23 season she sings Liù Turandot for La Monnaie, Brussels. Other roles she is adding to her repertoire include Micaëla Carmen, Konstanze Die Entführung aus dem Serail, Countess Le nozze di Figaro.

Her operatic engagements include Donna Anna Don Giovanni (Glyndebourne), Violetta La traviata (Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, Hong Kong Opera, Teatro Mario del Monaco, Treviso and Teatro Verdi, Padova, Washington National Opera, Glyndebourne Festival Opera, and her US debut with the LA Philharmonic Orchestra at the Hollywood Bowl); title role Lucia di Lammermoor (Staatsoper Hamburg, Semperoper Dresden, Teatro Real, Madrid and Bayerische Staatsoper); Elvira I puritani (Teatro Real, Madrid and Wiener Staatsoper); The Queen of Shemakha The Golden Cockerel (Adelaide Festival, Théâtre de la Monnaie Brussels, Teatro Real Madrid and Santa Fe Opera); Amina La sonnambula (Deutsche Oper Berlin and Bolshoi Theatre); Giulietta I Capuleti e i Montecchi (Deutsche Oper Berlin); Marguerite Les Huguenots (Semperoper Dresden); Juliette Roméo et Juliette (Gran Teatro Nacional Lima); Gilda Rigoletto (Hungarian State Opera); and Norina Don Pasquale and the title role in Rimsky-Korsakov's The Snow-Maiden (Bolshoi Theatre).

Gimadieva's recital and concert repertoire features bel canto arias and Russian arias and song repertoire. She has given recitals at the Edinburgh International Festival (Russian repertoire by Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninov and Rimsky-Korsakov); the Bolshoi Theatre, Moscow (as part of a concert of bel canto arias by Bellini and Donizetti); and Wigmore Hall (Russian repertoire by Glière, Rimsky-Korsakov and Tchaikovsky) accompanied by her husband, pianist Pavel Nebolsin.

Gimadieva has worked with conductors including Sir Mark Elder, Vasily Petrenko, Gennady Rozhdestvensky, Ivor Bolton, Evelino Pidò, Tugan Sokhiev, Yves Abel, Domingo Hindoyan and Daniel Oren, and directors including David McVicar. Laurent Pelly, Paul Curran and Francesca Zambello. She won the Golden Mask award for Best Female Performer in Opera for her performance as Amina La sonnambula (2014, Bolshoi Theatre), as well as First Prize in the 2010 International Shalyapin Competition and Second Prize in the 2015 Paris Opera Competition.

Gimadieva's discography includes her critically acclaimed performance as Violetta La traviata at Glyndebourne (Opus Arte), The Queen of Shemakha The Golden Cockerel at Théâtre de la Monnaie, Brussels (BelAir Classiques) and the Operngala für die Deutsche AIDS-Stiftung (Naxos). Her first solo album Momento Immobile, a collection of bel canto arias by Donizetti, Bellini and Rossini with The Hallé Orchestra conducted by Gianluca Marciànò, was released on Rubicon Classics in 2018.

---

Valid for use in 2023/24 season
For updated versions please contact
info@rayfieldallied.com